Keith Renz D. Romblon

student

Profile Summary

Greetings, Earthlings! I am Keith, a second-year Computer Science student from Planet Namec. With my otherworldly coding skills, I'm here to conquer the vast universe of programming and web development. Armed with a strong foundation in technology and an insatiable curiosity, I'm ready to take on projects that are out of this world (literally). Beam me up, and let's create some code!
